BLOOMINGTON— Fiscal Manager Cathy Dreyer was chosen as the 2014 McLean County Health Department Alice J. Olsson Memorial Employee of the Year. Dreyer was described as the silent voice of public health. Her knowledge and skills in developing, balancing, and managing the budget, make it that much easier for Health Department staff to focus on the important task of protecting the health and wellness of McLean County residents.

As Fiscal Manager, Dreyer works closely with every Health Department program. She has a special knack for stretching dollars -- which is particularly helpful in times when funding is tight, but needs remain high. Dreyer's budget guidance is a contributing factor to the overall success of the many programs and services available to the residents of McLean County.

The Alice J. Olsson Memorial Employee of the Year award honors an employee of the McLean County Health Department for outstanding achievement related to public health services in McLean County. Criteria for the award include commitment to the health department mission, demonstrated success in furthering the mission, exemplary representation of the department and achievement above and beyond required responsibilities.
